

1813 East Main Street • Salem, Virginia 24153

an.edu | 540.986.1800

Memorandum of Understanding

Memorandum of understanding between American National University (ANU) and Moravian College

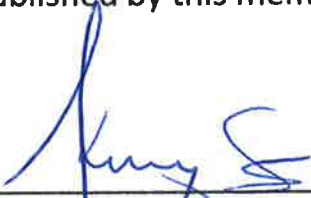

Inasmuch as

- American National University has a well-established, highly effective ESL program concurrently enrolling in students at multiple levels of English proficiency in terms lasting eight weeks, and inasmuch as
- American National University is fully authorized by the Student Exchange and Visa Information System (SEVIS) to enroll non-resident international students

Terms

- Moravian College may utilize ANU's English Language Institute as an outsource of ESL instruction for students for whom low English proficiency presents a barrier to academic success, and
- Moravian College may accept ANU's ELI Level Six Certificate of Completion as evidence of sufficient English proficiency for admission to Moravian College's academic program in lieu of Moravian College's minimum TOEFL or IELTS admission score requirement
- ANU will effectively remediate English deficiencies for referred students with the goal that the students reenroll at Moravian College with adequate English proficiency

The subsequent signing by both parties of a detailed Articulation Agreement will serve to formalize and define the basic understanding established by this memorandum of understanding.

Kerry Sethi, Director of International Studies
Moravian College

Frank E. Longaker, President
American National University